Atlanta's Aviva by Kameel is Among Yelp's National "Top 100 Places to Eat for 2018"

Mediterranean favorite at The Hub at Peachtree Center earns No. 3 spot

ATLANTA (April 4, 2018) – Aviva by Kameel, the Mediterranean fast casual restaurant located in The Hub at Peachtree Center, has been named the third best place to eat for 2018 by Yelp. The only Georgia-based restaurant to make the cut, this is Aviva by Kameel's second appearance on the national list and its highest ranking yet.

Chef Kameel Srouji, owner and executive chef, is known for his boisterous personality and healthy, flavorful food inspired by his home country of Israel. Aviva by Kameel is a longtime favorite for Peachtree Center's office workers and visitors.

"We're so incredibly proud of Kameel and his team and love having them as part of the Peachtree Center family," said Leslie Bland, director of marketing at Peachtree Center. "Eating at Aviva by Kameel is much more than a dining experience; you feel loved and welcomed by Kameel and leave with a full stomach and heart."

The menu at Aviva by Kameel includes falafel, often heralded as some of the best in Atlanta, shawarma, baklava and an array of ever-changing, fresh Mediterranean side dishes. There is also a juice bar inside the restaurant that is open for breakfast. Srouji places a high focus on health and quality ingredients, using only olive oil to cook and offering vegan and vegetarian options alongside his famous lamb and wild-caught salmon dishes.

"When we tell our customers we love them, we mean it," said Srouji. "We are so grateful for their continued support, including sharing their experiences on Yelp, and look forward to serving up our home cooked, Mediterranean eats at The Hub at Peachtree Center for years to come."

To compile the "Top 100 Places to Eat for 2018" list, Yelp's data science team compared businesses from across the country, using a ranking that considered ratings and number of reviews, while also accounting for quality and popularity, to not only reveal what's top rated, but also what's most popular across the country. In 2016, Aviva by Kameel placed 26th on the prestigious list.
